1 In trou - ble and in thrall un - to the Lord I call, 2 What van - tage or what thing gets thou thus for to sting, 3 A - las, too long I slack with - in these tents so black, 4 With them that peace did hate, with them came peace to make,

and He doth me com - fort. De - li - ver me, I say, thou false and flat - t'ring liar? Thy tongue doth hurt, I ween, which Ke - dar are by name: by whom the flock e - lect and set a qui - et life. But when my tale was told, from li - ars lips al - way and tongue of false re - port.

no less than ar - rows keen or hot con - sum - ing fire.
and all of I - saac's sect are put to o - pen shame.
cause - less I was con - trolled, by them that would have strife.
