

From Heaven Above to Earth I Come

LSB 358
stanzas 5, 11

Adam Gumpelzhaimer (1559–1625)
ed. Jonathan Wessler

Soprano

5 "These are the signs that you shall mark: The swad - dling
11 In - stead of soft and silk - en stuff You have but

Alto

5 "These are the signs that you shall mark: The swad - dling
11 In - stead of soft and silk - en stuff You have but

Tenor

5 "These are the signs that you shall mark: The swad - dling
11 In - stead of soft and silk - en stuff You have but

Bass

5 "These are the signs that you shall mark: The swad - dling, the 11 In - stead of soft and silk - en stuff You have, You

6

clothes and man - - ger dark. There you will find the hay and straw so rough On which as King, so clothes and man - - ger dark. There you will find the In - hay and straw so rough On which as King, so rich clothes and man - - ger dark. There you will find the hay and straw so rough On which as King, so swad - dling clothes and man - - ger dark. There you will find the have but hay and straw so rough On which as King, so

11

In - fant laid By Whom the heav'n's and earth were made."
rich and great, To be en - throned in roy - al state.

- fant laid By Whom the heav'n's and earth were made."
and great, To be en - throned in roy - al state.

In - - fant laid By Whom the heav'n's and earth were made."
rich and great, To be en - throned in roy - al state.

In - fant laid By Whom the heav'n's and earth were made."
rich and great, To be en - throned in roy - al state.