

Mein Seel erhebt den Herren mein

Musæ Sioniae VI/182

sts. 1-4 tr. Matthew Carver, © 2024, alt.

Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)

ed. Jonathan Wessler

1 My soul doth mag - ni - fy my Lord, My spir - it glad - ly spring - eth,
2 His name a - lone is sanc - ti - fied, And eve - ry heart He cheer - eth
3 The low - ly, meek, and hun - gry soul He sett - eth on a tow - er
4 The Lord His ser - vant Is - ra - el Hath hol - pen, and sus - tain - eth;
5 To God all praise and glo - ry be,— The Fa - ther, Son, and Spir - it—

My Sav - ior prais - es to af - ford!— So bless - ed Mar - y sing - eth:
Which in His mer - cy doth a - bide And in true faith Him fear - eth;
And with all boun - ties fill - eth full, To dem - on - strate His pow - er,
His mer - cy all con - clud - eth well, That His good will or - dain - eth.
As 'twas, and is, and e'er shall be. His grace may we in - her - it,

He grace did show His hand - maid low, With fa - vor did ad - dress me,
The might - y stand, but by His hand Their host in twain is riv - en;
He sends the rich with - out a stitch, And them to sor - row leav - eth,
As He of old the fa - thers told And pledged to them His fa - vor—
To walk up - on His right - eous way, Led un - to heav'n su - per - nal,

Ful - filled in me His great de - cree, And eve - ry age shall bless me!
He put - teth down the proud - est crown, They from their seat are driv - en.
But what is poor He ev - er - more To heav'n - ly joy re - ceiv - eth.
To A - bra - ham and all that came Forth from his seed, for - ev - er!
That sin may not our soul dis - may. Sing "A - men," choirs e - ter - nal!