1 From east to west, from shore to shore, Let ev-'ry heart a-wake and sing
4 She bowed her to the an-gel's word De-clar-ing what the Fa-ther willed,
7 All glo-ry for this bless-ed morn To God the Fa-ther ev-er be;

The ho-ly Child whom Mar-y bore, The Christ, the ev-er-last-ing King.
And sud-den-ly the prom-ised Lord That pure and hal-lowed tem-ple filled.
All praise to Thee, O Vir-gin-born, All praise, O Ho-ly Ghost, to Thee.

2 Be-hold, the world's cre-a-tor wears The form and fash-ion of a slave;
3 For this how won-drous-ly He wrought! A maid-en, in her low-ly place,
5 He shrank not from the ox-en's stall, He lay with-in the man-ger bed,
6 And while the an-gels in the sky Sang praise a-bove the si-lent field,

Our ver-y flesh our Mak-er shares, His fal-len crea-ture, man, to save.
Be-came, in ways be-yond all thought, The cho-sen ves-sel of His grace.
And He whose boun-ty feed-eth all At Mar-y's breast Him-self was fed.
To shep-herds poor the Lord Most High, The one great Shep-herd, was re-vealed.
